On 26th November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, which came into effect from 26th January 1950. The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment on 19th November 2015 notified the decision of Government of India to celebrate the 26th day of November every year as 'Constitution Day' to promote Constitution values among citizens. Session was organized by the NSS unit of SVN College of Education, Tarkwari on 26/11/2024 at seminar hall. Talk delivered by Sh. Gulshan Sandhu, Registrar Career Point University, Hamirpur, Resources person on our event. They gave the Information about the importance of constitution. The guest speaker began with underlining the importance of parliamentary system as a principal mechanism of a functional democracy. Citing it as the root of democracy, he celebrated constitution as the soul of a democracy. This inner power curbes lawlessness and dictatorship, he asserted. Our Constitution, he further stated, stands as a pillar supporting a citizen in his relationship with state and government. Quoting BR Ambedkar, the speaker emphasized the importance of good citizenry if the constitution is to remain good in the long run. So, he continued, it becomes us natural duty to imbibe the noble principles mentioned in the constitution. He further shifted the focus to the Preamble to the constitution, terming it as the mirror to values enshrined throughout the Constitution. 139 NSS volunteers & students, staff members Of SVN College of Education took part in this session. Mrs Amita Rani, Programme Officer of NSS Unit took her responsibility as well. The observance was ended with vote of thanks from NSS volunteer. Thereafter the event with concluded with national anthem.

In the evening a quiz was conducted for the students on the important aspects of our Constitution. In this competition, Six different team A, B,C,D,E,F with participants in each team give tough battle to each other. Rules and regulations of the quiz were explained at the beginning. It was interesting three-round competition, including objective questions with options round, buzzer round and rapid-fire round which engaged the students for one hour. The students showcased their brilliance by rapidly answering the questions. Though some of the questions were very tricky, the teams tried to answer them with confidence. It was very informative and knowledge enriching competition for the participants along with the audience. The competition concluded with the vote of thanks given by the Volunteers.
